

Calibration of Test Kits

The Australian Standard AS2845.3 - 2010 requires that backflow test equipment be calibrated annually to ensure accuracy.

The Backflow Prevention Association Queensland Inc supports the increasing requirement by local authorities to maintain on file, copies of the licensed backflow tester's test kit calibration certificate.